

Devotional for Each Day of the Week

Sunday: “Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.”—Philippians 1:2. Praise God for His grace and peace, which are from Him and Jesus. Pray for Pastor Jason Camery, a member of the Atlanta Commission, who just underwent knee surgery. Pray that Chris Myers would soon get a job in Atlanta.

Monday: “But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel.”—Philippians 1:12. Praise God for His sovereignty in salvation. Pray for the Selma (Ala.) Reformed Presbyterian Church, that the Lord would soon raise up a pastor for the congregation.

Tuesday: “So that it has become evident to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest, that my chains are in Christ.”—Philippians 1:13. Pray that the church’s suffering would bring glory to Christ. Pray for our brothers and sisters in China and North Korea, that they would be protected from those governments that want to kill them.

Wednesday: “And most of the brethren in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.”—Philippians 1:14. Pray that you and we would be bold to proclaim the gospel. Pray for Southfield (Mich.) Reformed Presbyterian Church, including Pastor Adam Kuehner, as they faithfully minister.

Thursday: “Some indeed preach Christ from envy and strife, and some also from goodwill.”—Philippians 1:15. Pray that people would serve Jesus, with good motives. Pray for Grace Reformed Presbyterian Church in State College, Pennsylvania, as it is in need of a pastor.

Friday: “What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.”—Philippians 1:18. Pray that the name of Jesus would be lifted up in Atlanta. Pray for our children, that they would not succumb to various evil influences in school.

Saturday: “For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.”—Philippians 1:21. Pray that as you engage in public worship tomorrow, you would love Jesus and be fully committed to Him.
