

Devotional for Each Day of the Week

Sunday: “Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.”—Philippians 4:20. Praise God and pray that He would be glorified today. Pray for the Atlanta Commission as it discusses this ministry; pray that the men would have wisdom and insight.

Monday: “For I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content.”—Philippians 4:11b. Pray that you would learn to be content. Pray for those in our fellowship with various illnesses, that they would be healed. Pray for Lafayette (Ind.) Reformed Presbyterian Church, pastored by Keith Evans, which has faced significant challenges recently.

Tuesday: “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.”—Philippians 4:13. Pray that Christ would give you spiritual strength for your challenges. Pray for the Hetherton (Mich.) Reformed Presbyterian Church, pastored by Ray Morton; pray that many would be added to it.

Wednesday: “Nevertheless you have done well that you shared in my distress.”—Philippians 4:14. Pray that you be able to share with others in their distress. Pray for Immanuel Reformed Presbyterian Church, West Lafayette, Indiana, pastored by Jared Olivetti.

Thursday: “For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities.”—Philippians 4:16. Pray that we as a church would be known for our generosity. Rejoice in the Lord with Marion (Ind.) Reformed Presbyterian Church, pastored by Jason Camery, as it has recently been able to purchase a church building; pray that this new facility be a key asset in bringing others into the kingdom.

Friday: “Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things sent from you, a sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God.”—Philippians 4:18. Pray that we would give sacrificially for the work of the kingdom.

Saturday: “And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.”—Philippians 4:19. Pray that God would supply everything that we need for the ministry of Atlanta Presbyterian Fellowship, including, financial resources. Pray that many folks would come to church tomorrow, worship God, and believe in Christ.

Scripture Memory and Catechism Questions & Answers

“O how love I thy law! It is my meditation all the day.”—Psalm 119:97.

“For our God is a consuming fire.”—Hebrews 12:29.

Q. 13. Did our first parents continue in the estate wherein they were created?

A. Our first parents, being left to the freedom of their own will, fell from the estate wherein they were created, by sinning against God.

Q. 14. What is sin?

A. Sin is any want of conformity unto, or transgression of, the law of God.

Q. 15. What was the sin whereby our first parents fell from the estate wherein they were created?

A. The sin whereby our first parents fell from the estate wherein they were created, was their eating the forbidden fruit.

We are particularly happy to have the members of the Atlanta Commission with us this evening, and we welcome to our pulpit this evening one of its members, Pastor Jason Camery, minister of the Marion (Ind.) Reformed Presbyterian Church.
